World Authors, 1980-1985 Vineta Colby 1991 Biographical/critical sketches of 320 contemporary writers who have come to prominence among readers of English in the early 1980s. Although most of the authors profiled are imaginative writers, sketches of biographers, scientists, historians, philosophers, and critics who have made significant contributions to literature are included as well. Each sketch combines the important details of the subject's life and career with a fair representation of critical commentary. Nearly one-third of the authors profiled have included autobiographical passages to supplement their sketches. Most biographies are accompanied by a portrait; all include a bibliography of works by and about the subject. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR

Lire l'Histoire générale des Antilles de J.-B. Du Tertre Christina Kullberg 2020-09-25 Cette étude propose d'examiner les ramifications historiques de l'exotisme à partir d'une lecture critique de l'Histoire générale des Antilles (1654/1667-71) écrite par le missionnaire dominicain, Jean-Baptiste Du Tertre. En procédant d'une analyse littéraire, notre étude suggère une reconfiguration de l'exotisme basée à la fois sur la théorisation contemporaine et sur le contexte historique et l'esthétique de l'époque. Notre travail se veut donc à la fois théorique en offrant une analyse critique des différentes orientations de l'exotisme ; et historique, en présentant une lecture approfondie d'une œuvre dont l'importance est considérable aussi bien pour l'histoire de la littérature française et antillaise que pour l'histoire de l'anthropologie. À cet égard, cette étude fournira aussi une exploration de la toute première colonisation française des îles et de la manière dont elle a été représentée. This book examines the historical ramifications of the concept of exoticism through a literary analysis of Histoire générale des Antilles (1654/1667-71) written by Dominican missionary Jean-Baptiste Du Tertre. The study gives a thorough account of the early French colonization of the islands and the ways in which this violent process of cultural encounters was represented. It argues for the necessity to reconfigure the notion of exoticism, both by revisiting contemporary theorization and by contextualizing it in regard to the history and aesthetics of the times. The study is thus both theoretical, in proceeding by a critical reading of different orientations of exoticism, and historical in offering an in-depth study of an author and a period that have received little attention despite their impact on French Caribbean literature and on the history of anthropology.

Down Among the Dead Men Dany 2012-03-23 The story of Dany Laferriere, the narrator and writer living in exile in Montreal, who finally comes home to Haiti. Nothing is different, and yet everything has changed. There is his mother, who has never left Haiti, not even for one minute, and who still performs all the rituals of old. But there is also the army of zombies that takes over the streets at night, while the American army occupies the country by day. What is this country of dead men? Is every Haitian a secret citizen? Is it possible for Laferriere to cross over to that country and then return? Laferriere wanders through Port-au-Prince interrogating old friends and new acquaintances. The tone becomes strident, as do the questions: Do we stay? Do we leave? What's the point? Where can we be ourselves and live like humans at the same time? In the end Laferriere decides to head for Bombardopolis, a village where you only need to eat once every three months -- a way of curing hunger? What will become of him once he gets there, and who will he be when he returns?

Nos Orient Jean Lacouture 2017-11-10 Nos Orient livre le dialogue passionné et parfois contradictoire entre deux journalistes appartenant à des générations et des univers culturels différents. En croisant leurs opinions et leurs deux regards, l'un occidental et l'autre oriental, cet entretien lève le voile sur un Orient sans cesse animé par les controverses politiques, philosophiques et religieuses. Les auteurs évoquent aussi leurs rencontres, émaillées de révélations politiques, avec les grands hommes qui ont façonné cet Orient multiple : de Gaule, Malraux, Sartre, Mitterrand, Nasser, Sadate, Ben Bella, le prince Sihanouk, Taha Hussein, Abd el-Kader, Mohammed V... «L'Orient est un métier», a déclaré Disraeli : Jean Lacouture et Ahmed Youssef démontrent que, par ses attraits multiples et complexes, l'Orient est avant tout une passion qui est parvenue, depuis les croisades, l'expédition de Bonaparte et le conflit de Suez, à dominer notre imaginaire collectif. Tantôt effrayant, tantôt enchanteur, cet Orient doit cependant rester une source de lumières pour tous. Né à Bordeaux en 1922, spécialiste des pays du Proche et du Moyen-Orient, Jean Lacouture a mené une carrière de journaliste pendant un demi-siècle (Combat, Le Monde, France Soir, Le Nouvel Observateur, L'Orient...). Il est l'auteur de plus de cinquante livres, notamment de grandes biographies (De Gaulle, Malraux, Mitterrand, Champollion...). Né à Alexandrie en 1955, Ahmed Youssef est journaliste au quotidien égyptien Al-Ahram. Outre un doctorat à la Sorbonne sur «L'Égypte dans l'imaginaire français», il est l'auteur de plusieurs ouvrages sur les relations entre la France et le monde arabe, parmi lesquels Cocteau l'Égyptien et Bonaparte et Mahomet.
