Together We Pray: a Prayer Book for Families

Together We Pray is a book of prayers written especially for families with children. It brings together grandparents, parents, older children, and even the youngest child to give thanks and to ask for God's help and mercy for the family and for the world. The prayers offered in Together We Pray are inspired by the Psalms of the Bible, scripture shared by Jews and Christians. They include prayers for the table, devotional prayers, and memory prayers that young children can easily understand. The prayers for table and devotion begin with a line or two from the Psalm in which the prayer is rooted and celebrate the good things of life just as the Psalms do--food, joy, home, love, and more. They also express a concern for other people and places around the world. For so many families, life today seems fast-paced and chaotic. Stopping for a moment to breathe, pausing and expressing thanks and gratitude to God, can be very powerful, even if the pause is relatively brief. Together We Pray helps families to take that pause, to share in God's love and grace, and to do so in the most profound and lasting way--together as a family.

2023-08-01  Premium Ebook with beautiful layout The men of olden times who wrought well in prayer, who brought the largest things to pass, who moved God to do great things, were those who were entirely given over to God in their praying. God wants, and must have, all that there is in man in answering his prayers. He must have whole-hearted men through whom to work out His purposes and plans concerning men. God must have men in their entirety. No double-minded man need apply. No vacillating man can be used. No man with a divided allegiance to God, and the world and self, can do the praying that is needed. In one word, the entire man without reservation must love God. So it takes the same entire man to do the praying which God requires of men. All the powers of man must be engaged in it. God cannot tolerate a divided heart in the love He requires of men, neither can He bear with a divided man in praying.

Edward McKendree Bounds (1835-1913) was an American author, attorney, and member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South clergy. While best known for his classic books on prayer, his others are beginning to be rediscovered by a new generation. Be Empowered to Pray Kenneth Ocasio 2016-12-21 Prayer can be enjoyable. Let's explore some reasons why prayer is so important, and start truly understanding why we need to pray. "Be Empowered to Pray: The 8 Essentials of Prayer" takes readers through eight prayer practices that support empowered prayers. We can all develop enriched prayer routines that add meaning to our lives. Before we know it, we can become prayerful regardless of how busy or hectic our circumstances may appear to be. Every Christian's life can be enriched by prayer, and making time to pray can become a joy. Just like we work on improving our daily life choices, it is essential for us to learn positive habits related to prayer. As Christians, being prayerful helps us improve our communication with God and leads us to trusting Him with our burdens. We can then find the courage and freedom to make our lives what we want them to be. The teachings in this book are intended to help readers increase the time they devote to prayer. Our Heavenly Father is always ready to speak to us and listen to our concerns. We all need some encouragement along the way to finding true communion with God, and that is what this book is intended to be. "The 8 Essentials of Prayer represent ways to make prayer a significant element of your everyday life. Some may even surprise you and give you a new perspective on what it means to pray. We continuously learn how to improve our communication with each other. Isn't it time we learn how to turn communicating with God into an art? Together, let's transform our prayers into dynamic, creative, messages that shape our lives into masterpieces." -Pastor Kenneth Ocasio

The Essentials of Prayer: A Christian Classic by Edward Mckendree (E. M.) Bounds E. M.

Bounds 2011-12-02 "The Essentials of Prayer" by E.M. Bounds focuses on the right attitudes for either individual or corporate prayer. Bounds holds that no person with a divided allegiance to God can pray as he or she ought. He discusses the importance of humility in prayer, and also the fact that busy religious activity does not compensate for an empty prayer life. The connection between trouble and prayer, and the fact that no sinner is barred from the mercy seat, are also clearly explained. Bounds points out that the key to missionary success is prayer, rather than the compromises on purity that some churches make in order to bring in more members. Another excellent title by Bounds, "The Essentials of Prayer" will help readers to understand much more on this important topic, and approach it more seriously.

coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Thessalonians 5:23) Christians who pray well, who bring the largest things to pass, and who move God to do great things, are those who are entirely given over to God in their praying. God wants, and must have, all that there is in us. We must be wholehearted people through whom he us. God must have us in our entirety. No double-minded people need apply. No vacillating person can be used. No person with a divided allegiance to God, the world, and self can do the praying that is needed. Holiness is wholeness, and so God wants holy people - wholehearted and true

- for his service and for the work of praying. This book challenges the reader to first make sure he is ready to pray, and it also shows from Scripture when and how we ought to pray. E. M.
Bounds examines the lack of prayer and its causes, but he also includes examples of answered prayer to give hope to those who feel like their prayers aren't being answered. Some may experience guilt for their lack and inconsistency of prayer, but sincere Christians will also be stirred in their heart to pray, and to pray well.

E. M. Bounds on Prayer E. M. Bounds 2006 Methodist minister and Civil War chaplain Edward McKendree Bounds (1835-1913) considered conversation with God as fundamentally vital to the Christian's life as physical breath. He devoted the last 17 years of his life to intense intercession and to penning some of the most perennially popular works about prayer. This attractive volume features the very best of his beloved writings. "God shapes the world by prayer. Prayers are deathless. The lips that uttered them may be closed in death, the heart that felt them may have ceased to beat, but the prayers live before God, and God's heart is set on them and prayers outlive the lives of those who uttered them; they outlive a generation, outlive an age, outlive a world." -- from E.M. The Complete Works of E. M. Bounds E. M.

Bounds 2017-02-17 This supreme anthology of books by E. M. Bounds unites his finest treatises on prayer and the enormity of prayer's power into one complete edition. A committed lifelong Christian whose writings were frequent and numerous, E. M. Bounds acquired a reputation as a man convinced of the essential, life-affirming and life-enriching qualities of the Christian faith. He toured and lectured widely, and was praised by several contemporaries for both his oratory and written works. In examining the texts within this volume, we realize how well they corroborate Bounds' reputation as a serious, wise and intense servant of God. Said by associates to never utter foolishness, and to take meals and awaken early each day mindful of the Lord, Bounds was occasionally referred to by his acquaintances as an 'Eagle of God' for his steadfast attitude and lifestyle. His seriousness was accompanied by passionate sermons where he was frequently moved to emotional displays. E. M. Bounds was by all accounts a preacher of great ability and grace. All of the books herein have acquired a doughty reputation as referential guides possessed of a great usefulness and profundity. The Christian believer and scholar alike will be pleased to find a wealth of contemplative material, rich in historical and theological referencing. Bounds' tone is one of reverence and unstinting conviction in belief, with the Lord's greatness discussed in a manner which is thoughtful and committed. Every book in this collection contains the word 'Prayer' in the title; the methods of praying were of great interest to Bounds, who sought to study the process intensely. The collection traverses several themes such as the origins and history of prayer; the methods of praying; the purposes of prayer; how prayer brings the believer closer to God; and how Christians may better utilize their time at prayer and emerge from each prayer spiritually nourished. In writing these works, E. M. Bounds draws upon the Gospel texts and events, plus several of Christianity's most revered Saints. His immense study and education in Christian and Biblical history and canon is on full display, with each book backed with authoritative study and years of contemplation. After E. M. Bounds' departed from the mortal coil in 1913, his manuscripts were carefully compiled by Reverend Claudius (Claude) Lysias Chilton, Jr., who had the following to say about the writings whose introduction to the world he supervised: -These books are unfailing wells for a lifetime of spiritual water-drawing. They are hidden treasures, wrought in the darkness of dawn and the heat of the noon, on the anvil of experience, and beaten into wondrous form by the mighty stroke of the divine. They are living voices whereby he, being dead, yet speaketh!-

Essentials of Prayer Bounds Edward McKendree "Henry Clay Trumbull spoke forth the Infinite in the terms of our world, and the Eternal in the forms of our human life. Some years ago, on a ferry-boat, I met a gentleman who knew him, and I told him that when I had last seen Dr. Trumbull, a fortnight before, he had spoken of him. 'Oh, yes,' said my friend, 'he was a great Christian, so real, so intense. He was at my home years ago and we were talking about prayer.' "Why, Trumbull," I said, "you don't mean to say if you lost a pencil you would pray about it, and ask God to help you find it." "Of course I would; of course I would," was his instant and excited reply.' Of course he would. Was not his faith a real thing? Like the Saviour, he put his doctrine strongly by taking an extreme illustration to embody his principle, but the principle was fundamental. He did trust God in everything. And the Father honoured the trust of His child."—Robert E. Speer. Prayer has to do with the entire man. Prayer takes in man in his whole being, mind, soul and body. It takes the whole man to pray, and prayer affects the entire man in its gracious results. As the whole nature of man enters into prayer, so also all that belongs to man is the beneficiary of prayer. All of man receives benefits in prayer. The whole man must be given to God in praying. The largest results in praying come to him who gives himself, all of himself, all that belongs to himself, to God. This is the secret of full consecration, and this is a condition of successful praying, and the sort of praying which brings the largest fruits. The men of olden times who wrought well in prayer, who brought the largest things to pass, who moved God to do great things, were those who were entirely given over to God in their praying. God wants, and must have, all that there is in man in answering his prayers. He must have whole-hearted men through whom to work out His purposes and plans concerning men. God must have men in their entirety. No double-minded man need apply. No vacillating man can be used. No man with a divided allegiance to God, and the world and self, can do the praying that is needed. Holiness is wholeness, and so God wants holy men, men whole-hearted and true, for His service and for the work of praying. "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." These are the sort of men God wants for leaders of the hosts of Israel, and these are the kind out of which the praying class is formed. Man is a trinity in one, and yet man is neither a trinity nor a dual creature when he prays, but a unit. Man is one in all the essentials and acts and attitudes of piety. Soul, spirit and body are to unite in all things pertaining to life and godliness. The body, first of all, engages in prayer, since it assumes the praying attitude in prayer. Prostration of the body becomes us in praying as well as prostration of the soul. The attitude of the body counts much in prayer, although it is true that the heart may be haughty and lifted up, and the mind listless and wandering, and the praying a mere form, even while the knees are bent in prayer.
