

Fun For Family Night

168 Hours Laura Vanderkam 2011-05-31 It's an unquestioned truth of modern life: we are starved for time. We tell ourselves we'd like to read more, get to the gym regularly, try new hobbies, and accomplish all kinds of goals. But then we give up because there just aren't enough hours to do it all. Or if we don't make excuses, we make sacrifices- taking time out from other things in order to fit it all in. There has to be a better way...and Laura Vanderkam has found one. After interviewing dozens of successful, happy people, she realized that they allocate their time differently than most of us. Instead of letting the daily grind crowd out the important stuff, they start by making sure there's time for the important stuff. When plans go wrong and they run out of time, only their lesser priorities suffer. Vanderkam shows that with a little examination and prioritizing, you'll find it is possible to sleep eight hours a night, exercise five days a week, take piano lessons, and write a novel without giving up quality time for work, family, and other things that really matter.

Family Night Kathleen A. Brown 2000 This story describes weekend fun with family.

Home for Dinner Anne Fishel 2015-01-07 Has your family dinner table become a landing spot for junk mail, homework, and bills? Is scheduled dinnertime in your home 6:00 for mom, 7:00 or later for dad, and . . . are the kids even home tonight or do they have another activity to get to? Because with sports, activities, long hours, and commutes, family dinners seem to have gone the way of the dinosaur . . . And it's time to bring them back--before it's too late! Studies have tied shared family meals to increased resiliency and self-esteem in children, higher academic achievement, a healthier relationship to food, and even reduced risk of substance abuse and eating disorders. Written by a Harvard Medical School professor and mother, Home for Dinner makes a passionate and informed plea to put mealtime back at the center of family life and supplies compelling evidence and realistic tips for getting even the busiest of families back to the table. Parents looking to make family dinnertime more than just a fantasy will find inside this invaluable, life-saving resource highly relatable stories, new research, recipes, and friendly advice to help them:

- Whip up quick, healthy, and tasty dinners
- Get kids to lend a hand (without any grief!)
- Adapt meals to the needs of everyone--from toddlers to teens
- Inspire picky eaters to explore new foods
- Keep dinnertime conversation stimulating
- Reduce tension at the table
- And more

Both parents and kids need a family mealtime environment that allows them to unwind and reconnect from the pressures of school and work. More than just offering them nutrition and energy for another intense day of jet-setting about, the incalculable family therapy provided for all will far surpass the small sacrifices it took to gather around the table for a short time.

Family Fun Night Deanna Van De Brake
2010-05 Family Fun Night is a bible based activity adventure for any sized family or children's ministry. As a Mom, I value the time our family gets to spend away from the television and busyness of life, to focus on our Creator and each other. This book is a collection of simple but thoughtful activities and games that color and bring to life some of our family's favorite Bible adventures. This collection started as a desire to introduce my young children to my very fun and amazing God, the God of the Bible. So we used a children's Bible for the pictures and these fun activities to make a big impression on them. I can not tell you how it warmed my heart when my children would beg for the next "family fun night." It was sometimes messy, sometimes crazy, but always fun! Raising a family can be busy, hectic, and sometimes stressful. God used this time not only to share and teach about the Lord and His word, but God helped us spend a moment to enjoy our children. The value of this quality time is truly an amazing gift we are blessed to share. Make a mess and have some fun!

Discipline That Connects With Your Child's Heart

Jim Jackson 2016-09-20 A Powerful Approach to Bringing God's Grace to Kids Did you know that the way we deal (or don't deal) with our kids' misbehavior shapes their beliefs about themselves, the world, and God? Therefore it's vital to connect with their hearts-- not just their minds--amid the daily behavior battles. With warmth and grace, Jim and Lynne Jackson, founders of Connected Families, offer four tried-and-true keys to handling any behavioral issues with love, truth, and authority. You will learn practical ways to communicate messages of grace and truth, how to discipline in a way that motivates your child, and how to keep your relationship strong, not antagonistic. Discipline is more than just a short-term attempt to modify your child's actions--it's a long-term investment to help them build faith, wisdom, and character for life. When you discover a better path to discipline, you'll find a more well-behaved--and well-believed--kid.

Building Family Ties with Faith, Love, and Laughter is the second of three books in the Faithful Families series where Dave applies his practical, conversational, and humorous approach to the challenge of building strong spiritual ties to each other as a family. Topics include: Contentment, Security, Loyalty, Gratitude, Spontaneity, Communication, and more. Preaching is his gift, but Pastor Dave Stone's family is his life's blessing. While raising three kids with his wife, Beth, as well as shepherding the diverse families of his congregation, his heart, and passion for building strong families rings louder than ever. He knows that raising faithful families is a key to the future of the church. "Dave's book is full of no nonsense, common sense suggestions, and biblically inspired truth. As a parent of two "under construction" children still finding their way in a fallen world, I am keenly aware of the importance of living a life of faithful integrity in order to actually teach it to our kids. I, of course, have failed miserably on occasion. But then, I didn't have Dave's book like you do!"—Kathie Lee Gifford

Family Fun Nights Book Leslie Timm

2021-08-05 Family time...we all know we need more of it, both family togetherness and time. Unfortunately, we cannot gather more time, it is something that is fixed and never changing. But what we can do is find time to have more fun with our families. It doesn't have to be an extravagant vacation or an everyday thing, but setting aside some time each week to solely spend with each other can make a drastic impact on the way your family interacts with each other. With this book, I have compiled 52 ideas for a once-a-week family fun night. That means there is something to do each week of the year. It usually works best if you choose a set day of the week to have this special day, but there is always room for flexibility. If your family would work best by choosing a different day each week based on that week's schedule, by all means, do that. The key is to get the family together once a week and have lots of fun. Side note...if a week is a bad one and your family just can't come together that week, don't worry about it. You want to have more time together without added stress. So you miss a week, just try again the following week. The way to use this book is to first figure out which day your family is going to do. Then look over that night of fun activities. P.S. You do not have to do said activities at night. For some families, mornings or afternoons might work best, go with the dynamic of your household. After looking over the plans for your family fun night, you need to decide which activities you want to implement. Nothing in this book is required, it's all just ideas and starting points for other things you might like to incorporate. Always modify, change, add to, take away anything you don't find fitting for your group. There may even be things listed that because of where you live or your resources you may not be able to do. Okay, next you want to be sure to gather the supplies needed or make the necessary arrangements to move forward with your family time. Last, have fun and really enjoy your time together. Now I have placed a circle on the left side of each activity. If you're like me and want to check things off as you plan them, or check them off as you do them the choice is yours. It is also your choice to not mark anything off at all. Remember you do not have to do each and every activity. You can implement just two and have a nice time together. You can even substitute any activity you choose with your own idea or something else you all would like to do. Be sure to implement a no-devices policy aside from it being something that is encouraged in the book or for taking photos. You'll certainly want to document some of these precious moments. Have a great time celebrating your family and cheers to spending more time together!
